RMSI, a global leader in geospatial and engineering solutions, is proud to announce its recognition as a recipient of the “CII Award on Excellence for Women in STEM 2024.” This prestigious award highlights RMSI’s commitment to fostering diversity and inclusion within the Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) fields.

CII Awards on Excellence for Women in STEM is an initiative dedicated to bridging the gender gap in STEM fields. This initiative serves as a catalyst for change, recognizing organizations and institutes that champion diversity and inclusion in STEM. The award categories span various sectors, including engineering, life sciences, ICT, and beyond, with distinctions awarded to organizations, institutions, and individuals who exemplify excellence in these areas.

As one of the ‘Top 25’ organizations selected through a comprehensive evaluation process by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), RMSI demonstrated its industry-leading best practices for empowering women in technology. The rigorous selection included a detailed analysis of organizational practices followed by presentations to a distinguished jury of industry experts.

RMSI received this esteemed award in the ‘Industry’ category alongside other eminent recipients such as HCL Technologies, Ernst & Young, PwC, Biocon Pharma, Philips India, and L&T Technology Services. In the ‘Institution’ category, awardees include renowned institutions like BITS Pilani, IIT Kharagpur, CSIR – National Aerospace Laboratories, IIT Madras, and Indian Council for Medical Research – RMRC. The award ceremony was held at the India Habitat Centre, New Delhi and was attended by the industry leaders.

“This recognition reflects RMSI’s unwavering commitment to creating an inclusive workplace where women in STEM can thrive and lead” said Gagan Jyot, SVP- Human Resources, RMSI. “We are honored to be acknowledged among such esteemed organizations and remain dedicated to driving meaningful change in the technology sector.”

RMSI’s commitment to promoting diversity extends beyond awards, which is reflected in its workplace culture and initiatives to empower women at all levels.
